HIGH BROW STUFF.

By Hal E. Roach. ✓

Will Rogers in a burlesque of the way that Russian drama should be acted, gives a very humorous portrayal of Russian drama as he conceives it. His efforts bring reward in the form of a movie contract and it is only when the director attempts to use him for real dramatic situations that he finds our hero sadly lacking in dramatic ability. But having a contract, his director attempts to make him commit many impossible things but to his surprise and astonishment, Rogers does nearly all of them and more, and eventually wins out by being cast in a movie drama, more in keeping with his real ability.
